200TH VICTORY NIGHT HONORS ARSENAULT & DAIGNEAULT

A 200th Victory Night honoring two of Canada's most distinguished coaches, Warrior hockey coach Paul Arsenault and basketball coach Doug Daigneault, will take place at the Loyola Athletic Complex on Friday evening, January 24th.

Arsenault registered his 200th victory as a college hockey coach when the Warriors edged arch-rival Sir George Williams 4-3 on Friday, January 10th, while Daigneault reached the same milestone on December 10th with a victory over Mc Gill. Coaches Arsenault and Daigneault have brought a rare distinction to the Loyola Campus of Concordia University - it is one of the few institutions in North America that can boast two head coaches with 200 career victories to their credit.

The night will also feature two outstanding sporting events as the Warrior cagers meet the league leading Sir George Georgians at 7 p.m. while the Loyola skaters face number one ranked University of Toronto Blues for the O'Keefe Challenge Cup at 8:30 p.m.

Ceremonies honoring the two coaches will take place prior to the start of their respective games. Presentations will be made to the coaches from the University, the L.M.A.A. (Student Athletic Association), the Warriors Club (Alumni), and the players themselves.

Coach Paul Arsenault is in his third year as head coach of the Warriors after serving eight years at the helm of the Sir George Williams Georgians. Over the last decade his teams have captured seven league championships and have advanced to the National finals twice. In 1972 he was awarded college hockey's highest honor when he was voted Canadian College Coach of the Year. For the past two years he has been selected by the Quebec Universities Athletic Association to coach the annual conference All-Star team against the major Junior All-Stars.

A native of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Coach Arsenault received his B.P.E. degree from the University of New Brunswick and in 1969 obtained a Master of Science Degree from the University of Oregon.

After serving as Director of Athletics at Sir George, Arsenault came to Loyola in 1972 as Varsity Hockey Coach and Lecturer in the Department of Bio Physical Education. This past summer his contributions to physical education and athletics in Canada were recognized by the Department of Health and Welfare as he was chosen to the prestigious National Fitness Council.

Coach Arsenault, his wife Cathi and daughter Klay reside in Pointe Claire, Quebec.

Coach Doug Daigneault is serving his ninth campaign as head coach of the Basketball Warriors. His outstanding record includes six league titles and an unprecedented string of 66 consecutive victories in league play from 1968-1972.

Born in Montreal, Coach Daigneault grew up in Malone, New York, and has been acclaimed as one of the finest all-round athletes ever to be produced in the Upper New York State region.

He continued playing basketball and football at Clemson University where he obtained a B.Sc. Degree. He had the unique honor of playing in three major post season football games: the Sugar Bowl, Orange Bowl and Blue Bonnett Bowl. Following his college career he played six years of professional football highlighted by being a member of the 1960 Grey Cup Champion Ottawa Roughriders. Daigneault's past experiences in coaching basketball were in South Carolina and in the Ottawa area prior to his appointment at Loyola.

Four years ago Daigneault added to his coaching responsibilities as he took over the position of Head Coach of the Football Warriors. In 1972 he led the squad to the Q.U.A.A. championship and a berth in the Prairie Bowl held in Edmonton, Alberta.

Coach Daigneault has also taken on administrative duties during the last three years, serving as Coordinator of Men's Intercollegiate Athletics as well as being the official Loyola Campus representative on the Q.U.A.A. Board of Governors and voting delegate to the C.I.A.U. He is recognized as one of the senior men in Canadian athletic - administrative circles in terms of experience and ability.

Coach Daigneault, his wife Jane and their five daughters reside in Pierrefonds, Quebec.
